Forest School Leader Level 3

Gain the skills, knowledge and confidence to deliver Forest school in your own setting with an accredited Level 3 course.

Covering the theoretical and practical aspects including principles of Forest School, practical tool use, programme planning and learning theory, this course also includes a 2-day Outdoor First Aid course.

Complete a portfolio workbook and practical assessment to gain a certificate accredited at Level 3 by AIM Qualifications.

Connecting people to nature is at the very heart of all the work carried out by Derbyshire Wildlife Trust's Wilder Engagement Team and this is reflected in all our training courses.

We recognise the importance of promoting an understanding of the natural world and see all our training programmes as ideal mediums for delivery. Our trainers are all highly experienced providers of environmental education who have been connecting people to nature many years.

The Awarding body for our training courses is AIM Qualifications and Assessment Group.

Our Learning Spaces

Wildlife Discovery Room and Outdoor Classroom, Carsington Water

From Level 1 Nature Connection courses to Level 3 Forest School Leader training, with both an indoor and outdoor classroom as well as easy access to many different habitats, The Wildlife Discovery Room is the ideal location to learn how you can work with learners in an inspiring environment. Rewilding seeks to connect people with nature, it encourages us to appreciate nature and find the right balance between ours and nature's needs, allowing both to thrive!

Whistlestop Discovery Centre, Matlock Bath

Based in Matlock Bath, next to the railway station, our recently renovated classroom, with its beautiful wildlife garden is an ideal location to learn how to connect people to nature in gardens and local green spaces.
